to secure a re-survey of Richmond harbor.

Outlined At Harbor
Day Luncheon

Congressman Charles F. Curry in deprecating the honors paid him at the Harbor Day celebration as not properly belonging to one who did his duty as a representative of the people with the united support of the people behind him, not only pledged continued support of the city but proposed to ask a re-survey of Richmond harbor under a bill introduced by him in 1916 by which the original harbor project was accepted.

FANCY NAMES FOR PULLMAN CARS BANNED

John Smith has finally made his mark in the world. He has managed to get his name on a Pullman car, and on one of the newest and most elaborate Pullman cars now in service anywhere. John Smith, the Pullman car, left Oakland last night for Chicago on the Overland Limited. He is the first of a long line of new Pullmans with good American names that tourists can read, pronounce, understand and remember, according to F. E. Beck, manager of the Pullman shops in Richmond. The John Smith so honored in this instance is believed to be Captain John Smith, and other cars will bear other names which are linked with American history.

Fifty-five of these new cars have been ordered placed in service on the Overland run. They are the latest thing in Pullman cars, and were built at a total cost of $2,500,000.

County Officials View

And Land

Both sites of the proposed bridges across the bay from Richmond connecting with Marin county were inspected by the members of the board of supervisors of this county, attorneys, engineer and officials of the two companies yesterday, through the kindness of Charles F. Van Damme, president of the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Company, who placed a special ferry boat at their disposal for the day.

Two companies are applying for a franchise to bridge the bay, Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Company, which has been operating a ferry for years, and the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, Inc., a new concern, headed by Roy O. Long, a real estate man of Berkeley.

The subscribers were anxious to view both sides of the bay and view the proposed landing places and the approaches to the two proposed bridges. When the two (Continued on Page 8)

Tribute Is Paid By City Officials To Work Of Congressman Curry

A two fold purpose actuated the Harbor Day celebration and luncheon in Hotel Carquinez yesterday, when all of Richmond turned out en masse to observe the beginning of a new era of development for the city.

As expressed by Chairman E. B. Bull they were, first to celebrate the beginning of dredging operations in the channels in the inner and outer harbors, and second to honor the leaders who brought to completion the arduous task of making the feat possible.

In an address of welcome, Mayor Mattie Chandler praised the efforts of City Attorney T. M. Carlson for his work in Sacramento in putting the facts of Richmond's desire for industrial growth before the legislature, Assemblyman Robert P. Easley for his efforts in behalf of the many projects in which Richmond was vitally concerned, and last but not least (Continued on page 4)

SOME EXEMPT FROM TOLLS! READ THIS!

SECTION 2879. Persons Exempt.—Any person going to or from a funeral, school, performing highway labor, or attending a military parade or court which by law he is required to attend as a witness in a criminal case, IS EXEMPT FROM PAYING TOLLS.

The above is taken from the statutes of 1927 and is section 2879 of the political code. It is an old law but still on the statute books, and creates a very peculiar situation.

Attorneys who have examined the chapter state that it applies to all existing toll bridges, and any that may be constructed in the future. It is a condition of which but very few are aware, and simply means that school children, those attending funerals or military parades, those working on the highways, are not required to pay toll.

As to what extent this will affect the revenues of bridges cannot be estimated. (Continued on Page 4)

State Highways Benefit

By Tax

SACRAMENTO May 26.—Resumption of new construction work on California's highway system during 1928 was made possible this afternoon with the approval by Governor C. C. Young of Senator Arthur H. Breed's bills to increase the gasoline tax, classify the highways as primary and secondary routes and apportion the increased funds between these routes. The bills will take effect July 29.

The gasoline tax measure adds an additional cent to the present fuel levy the extra cent to be used only for new construction work. The old fund will still be divided between the State and counties the latter on the basis of motor vehicle registration for reconstruction work.

The classification of the highways is accomplished by designating the main trunk, county seat laterals, national parks and certain interstate connections as primary (Continued on Page 4)

RAILROADS TO GIVE SUPPORT FOR PROGRESS

Richmond Well Placed
For Extension Of
Two Railroads

In the absence of J. T. Saunders, freight traffic manager, of the Southern Pacific Railway company, W. P. Ballard, general industrial agent of the company yesterday expressed his conviction that Richmond could look for the hearty support of the Southern Pacific in its desire for industrial growth.

"Richmond is ideally situated for the extension of railroad facilities," Ballard declared. "In many cities streets, highways, and subdivisions are laid out to the end of the immediate advantage of the municipality. Railroads are shut off from the natural sources of supplies in this way, and the city is stunted in its growth from its own misapprehension."

City Attorney Carlson

City Attorney Thomas M. Carlson paid a high tribute to Congressman Charles F. Curry who was honor guest at yesterday's Harbor Day celebration.

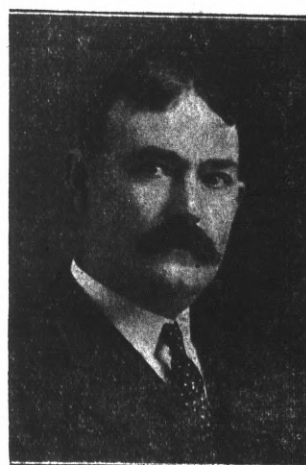

"Over 40 years ago, Congressman Curry dedicated his life to an unselfish service to the public," said Carlson. "He began his years of service as no more than a black haired boy, animated by a desire to aid his fellow citizens toward the goal of prosperity and advancement."

"As a past master, a county clerk, and secretary of the state of California Congressman Curry was known as a man of the people, for whom service was the only ambition."

"Years touched his hair grey but his record as representative of the third district in the National Congress stands by itself as the most consistent effort of any representative to serve the people."

The new landing pier and wharf, is now receiving the finishing touches, and will be ready for traffic Saturday, when the new schedule will go into effect.

The new wharf extends from the old one and is 2700 feet in length, which with the old old pier, makes a wharf extending into the bay 3500 feet.

CAMPUS TOUR CONDUCTED AT P. T. A. CONGRESS

Sixteenth district, which includes Richmond, Berkeley, Mt. Diablo and Victory links, was in charge of yesterday's program to entertain over one thousand women of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Forty-five Richmond women aided in the pilgrimage through the University campus grounds and later served tea to the many noted visitors in the new Hearst gymnasium. On the arrival at the University the group went to the Greek theatre to enjoy a band concert given by the Berkeley high school boys. Mrs. Evan J. Foulds, president of the Berkeley federation, greeted the delegates and presented them with colorful Japanese parasols which were carried on the trip through the grounds over the route which the seniors took on their final pilgrimage. Mayor Stringham of Berkeley extended greetings to the ladies at Hearst Mining building, and Robert Sproule spoke at the Campanil.

Moving pictures were taken of the procession which was an impressive sight, as the ladies moved forward to the Hearst Memorial gymnasium, which was but recently completed in the memory of Phoebe Apperson Hearst. A sturdy oak, the emblem of the congress, was then planted, with the presidents of the federations of 49 states taking part, and sprinkling some of the soil from their state on the ground. The whole gathering then sang "My Tribute," a song written by Mrs. Wilson T. Higgins, past president of the Congress. This was in honor of the late Phoebe Hearst, who was one of the founders of the P. T. A.

The visiting delegates were served punch and pastries by Richmond women. All the federation officers, the presidents, past, president, and elect of the various associations were in attendance.

Picnic Lunch Held By Club Mendelssohn

Members of the Club Mendelssohn enjoyed a picnic luncheon at one o'clock yesterday in the Richmond clubhouse when all gathered for the last meeting of this term. Mrs. J. Stuart's place as president will be taken by Mrs. J. McVittie. Following the luncheon, which was a jolly affair, there was held a regular business meeting when reports were made by Mrs. Stuart, who attended the district convention of Federal clubs in Stockton last week, and also by Mrs. McVittie, who attended the state convention. Both talks were highly entertaining.

An unusual program had been arranged for this time. Mrs. C. O. Bryant gave two humorous readings. The first one was entitled "The Rival" by Rudyard Kipling, followed by "The Grasshopper and the Ant" by Milt Gross, one of America's new and well known humorists. Miss Jean Moyle, the promising dramatic scholar of the Mendelssohn club, then presented a clever character sketch which she has been playing on a vaudeville circuit in San Francisco. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Stevens, her sister. She carried her audience swiftly back to the village church scene and became different rustic characters in such rapid order that one was surprised as well as delighted.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS PLAN OUTING IN SONOMA

The next meeting of the Newland group of the Campfire Girls will be held on June 2, at 3:30 o'clock in the City Hall. Tentative plans are being discussed among the girls of a summer outing of the group at Camp Meeker in Sonoma county. Nothing definite has been decided upon.

A weiner roast, held in lieu of the regular meeting, was given yesterday afternoon, when the members went to Grand Canyon park. Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland was in charge.

An enthusiastic report was given of the mothers and daughters banquet given by the girls Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the City Hall. Allison Hefner was in charge of the committee that work so earnestly to make the evening a success. Thanks were extended to Margaret Baker, Florence Petry and Bernice Cook for their work in decorating so cleverly.

While the banquet was in progress a well arranged program was enjoyed. Sylvia Gineberg gave a recitation entitled "Mother's Party Dress." Group songs were then sung, followed by a talk by Florence Petry. A piano solo, "Silent Prayer" played by Mary Baker ended the program. All enjoyed the playing of games which followed.

S. F. DANCER IS SUED FOR LARGE SUM

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Florence Reed, starring in "The Shanghai Gesture" at a local theater, today filed suit in the superior court here for $150,000 damages from St. Rita Bonda, local dancing master and musician.

Miss Reed claims $100,000 for slander because she says Bonda has been announcing publicly that she wears a mask in portraying her part. The other $50,000 is asked as damages for Bonda's alleged violation of her privacy by making a "portrait mask" of her face and exhibiting it in downtown shop windows as the mask he made for her use in the play.

The star explains that the whole success of the play depends upon her maintaining a masklike expression until near its close. She has maintained this expression naturally, she avers, and not through the use of a mask. Bonda's statements, she declares, have been reflections upon her ability and success as an actress.

According to Elmer E. Robinson, attorney for Miss Reed, Bonda let it become generally known that it was his mask that the actress was wearing.

Each year as we observe Memorial Day, our thoughts are mostly for the ones who silently sleep in the last resting place of the departed.

But to the true American, it should mean more. It should recall and revive the Spirit of Patriotism which caused the slumbering heroes so valiantly to fight and win.

DENNY STARS IN BIG FILM AT RICHMOND

An elaborately built bungalow in wheels, and an entire caravan of typical tourists was part of the cast of "California Straight Ahead," the Universal Jewel picture starring Reginald Denny, which comes to the Richmond Theatre today and tomorrow.

Most of the picture takes place out on the open road, with Denny in the role of a disconsolate auto driver trying to forget the fact that his girlfriend had changed her mind. He ours the country in the picture, a long-distance trailer he had built with which to take his bride to California.

Harry Pollard, who directed the picture, spent a week in picking representative types of motor tourists to use in the caravan of automobiles accompanying Denny.

The picture, from a story by Byron Morgan and Pollard, follows the trial of the auto camper from east to west coast, through all manner of trials and tribulations, including speed traps, public engagements, blowouts and engine trouble, with a thrilling finish in Los Angeles when Denny gets back in the good graces of his girl by driving her father's race car in the famous Ascot Track handicap.

Denny in "California Straight Ahead" is reported to have found an ideal role to fit his ability as a light comedian. He is supported by a strong cast, including Gertrude Olmsted, Tom Dillson, Chas.
Gerard, Lucille Ward, John Seabring, Fred Esmelton and others.

Other film features include
"Sold in Morocco," a Lupino Lane
comedy, and "Why Women Pay."

ALASKAN FILM GIVES THRILL AT CALIFORNIA

"Alaskan Adventures," the thrilling nature picture and record of the miracles of nature filmed in the northern wilderness, will be the first feature of a double bill at the California theatre starting today.

This six-reel subject is a masterpiece of photography and scenic beauty and combines adventure and the drama of the vast, silent spaces of the north. It is a picture of the mystery and lure of nature at its wildest. Two years in the making, "Alaskan Adventures" recites the pictorial experiences of Capt. Jack Robertson, noted explorer, and Arthur H. Young, world's champion low-and-arrow shot and big game hunter, who act out across the rim of the Arctic planning themselves to carry no weapons of offense or a dense save bow and arrows. For another thing they pledged themselves to kill no animal, bird or fish except in the case of actual necessity, which meant for food purposes.

The little-known parts of Alaska proved a land of mystery and the journey was completed, when the two adventurers had filmed the ice break-up in the Yukon, the Midnight Sun, and the Valley of 10,000 Smokes, the birth of an iceberg, and rugged scenes of nature never before revealed by the eye of a camera.

Only through infinite patience and daring were Robertson and Young enabled to film nature's miracles, and the pictorial record of their journey is a veritable glimpse of the mighty forces of nature in a land where death ever stalked their trail and silent vigils.

"Going Crooked," the film version of the crook play based on John Golden's stage hit, comes today as the second feature of a double bill. Bessie Love, Oscar Shaw, Gustav Von Seyffertitz, Edna Kennedy, Leslie Fenton,
Frank Mann, Lydia Knott, William Worthington, Bernard Siegel, and Evelyn Selbie, are included in the all star cast. George Melford directed the production, which is a comedy drama of unusual situations containing many scenes filmed in Los Angeles' Chinatown.
Both humor and thrills feature this story.

"International News" and Larry Canelo at the organ, are other features.

SIZE OF PAPER MONEY WILL BE REDUCED THIRD

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Virtually all the paper money in the country soon will be reduced nearly one-third in size, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced today.

Shorter, narrower bills will replace the greenbacks and yellow-backs whose size has remained unaltered since 1861.

From 7 1/2 by 3 1/8 inches the currency will be cut to 6 1/8 by 2 5/8 inches.

Public convenience and a saving of a third of the cost of making and handling notes, were cited by Mellon in favor of the change.

The new money will fit into pocketbooks without folding. Folding and creasing, hastening deterioration, will be avoided.

"Each note will require one-third less paper and ink, its shipping weight will be reduced by one-third. More notes will be produced by the same printing operation," Mellon said.

Growth of population and wealth have so increased the demand for currency, he pointed out, that sections of the bureau of engraving and printing have been running double shifts.

Some months will be required to complete plans for the change.
One dollar notes will be the first in the smaller sizes. Other denominations will be changed later.

All bills of the same denomination will bear a portrait of the same president, whether issued by the treasury or a federal reserve bank. Washington's head will be on the dollar bills and probably Jefferson's on the two dollar bills.

All except national bank notes dated for eventual retirement will be replaced.

WORK IS PROGRESSING ON FORD COMPANY SITE

PARR PREPARES FOR COMING OF FORD COMPANY

That the confidence of Richmond city officials and citizens has not been misplaced in Ford Parr, is shown by the remarkable development that has attended preparations for the coming of the national automobile concern of Henry Ford.

To enumerate the important changes which have taken place since the Parr lease was signed on October 18, 1926 would be to show with what energy the Parr organization has taken up the tremendous task of pushing Richmond affairs to the front among the seriously competitive conditions which now exist upon the Pacific Coast, where growing centers are reaching out to get and hold the industries seeking western locations.

Even while negotiations between Richmond and the Parr company were under way Parr was working with the Ford company to land the big western plant for Richmond. Definite word of the acceptance by the Ford company of the Richmond site was telegraphed from Detroit on December 18, 1926, and immediately the machinery was set in motion to provide the things required for the Ford proposition. Parr has frequently, in public and private statements, voiced his appreciation of the unanimity with which Richmond city officials and citizens have moved together to get the things necessary.

The things involved in the Ford proposition are basic with regard to all the plans laid by Parr for Richmond's growth. They include the railroads, the harbor, shipping growth and industrial promotion.

Railroads On Job
Already, when the Parr company took charge of harbor affairs, the Santa Fe was on its way to the inner harbor. Now the Southern Pacific has secured its rights of way and will move in over its own fills to the Ford site without waiting for the general filling in of the acreage. By this plan the Southern Pacific will be on the ground when work begins instead of having to build over the gilled land. Both railroads have expressed their agreement to plans for furthering the industrial interests of the city's waterfront.

While the complex situation of railroads and rights of way was being worked out it became necessary to see that the waterways to the city's harbor land were put into condition for shipping. Needs were studied and are still being worked upon by Parr, who leaves shortly for a tour of the principal harbors of the United States and Canada to study the latest ideas in harbor development. He will be accompanied by Councilman W. W. Scott who has made a close study of Richmond harbor conditions as chairman of the harbor committee.

More ships and ships of larger tonnage entering the harbor will require harbor facilities greatly in advance of any now in use here. Then Parr plans contemplate the completion of work now under way and the addition of new docks and wharves with warehouses as fast as possible. At the present time several of the largest steamship companies are investigating the Richmond port.

A viewpoint brought by Parr to apply to the Richmond situation was that industries do not just happen in any city. They must be sought and matters arranged to meet their particular needs. This was true of the Ford plant where negotiations extended over a long period and covered many details. This is also true of other large industries now looking over the field. Parr has gained the confidence of these major industries by his ability to understand their needs and gain the action which results in meeting them.

"I have an interest in Richmond's growth over the beyond the gain which will come to our corporation through that growth," said Parr. "I see here the foundation plan of a great center of commerce and industry. To coordinate all the factors which are necessary to that end, to center the eyes of those seeking a western port and a western industrial site upon Richmond and to enjoy the cooperation of the people of Richmond in the program which will bring about all these things is at once a great task and a great pleasure. A large share of the reward is now and will be in the sense of accomplishing an important and far-reaching work."

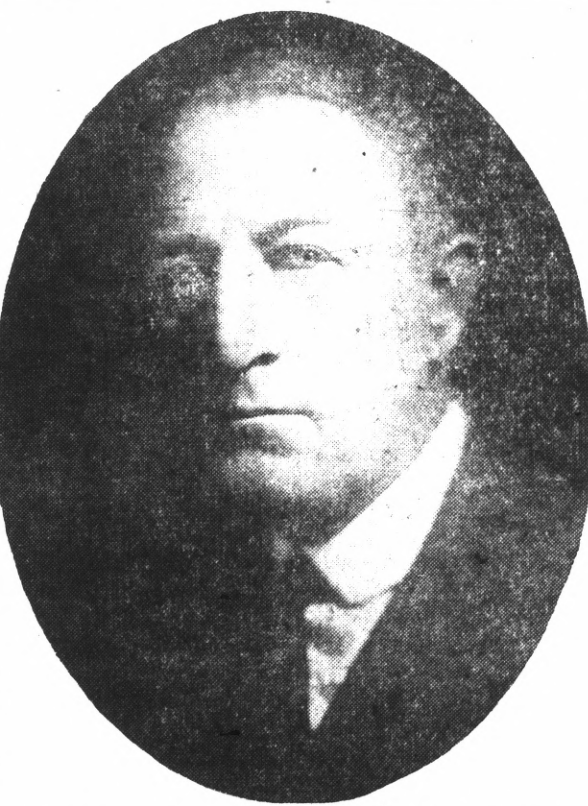

In addition to the immediate activities connected with railroads shipping and industry Parr has petitions come before them for a final hearing they wanted to be in a position, when maps were exhibited, to visualize intelligently the picture that was placed before them. First a trip was made along the Richmond shore as far as Point San Pablo, where the hills were climbed and a view across the bay to McNears point was taken.

The party then returned, boarded the ferry boat, enjoyed a banquet as the guests of Van Damme, while crossing the bay, and then drove to McNears Point.

Both the proposed landing places of the present ferry company were also inspected. The supervisors appeared to be much interested in everything they were shown, but no opinions were expressed by any of them.

J. J. Walsh, the engineer of the Richmond San Rafael Ferry Company and Charles F. Derleth, Jr., engineer for the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, Inc., exhibited maps showing the types of bridges which it is proposed to construct. Walsh's plans call for a bridge with short spans and Derleth's call for a structure with long spans.

The length of the proposed bridge of the Richmond San Rafael Ferry Company is a trifle over 16,000 feet and the engineer stated it could be built for $10,000,000. The length of the proposed bridge of the Richmond San Rafael Bridge, Inc., is about 15,000 feet in length and the engineer stated it would cost approximately $16,000,000.

The greatest depth of water along the site of the bridge of the new company is about 60 feet, while the greatest depth of water on the route of the ferry company bridge is 42 feet.

The final hearing of the petitions of both companies was set for June 4th, but on the trip yesterday, Derleth stated he had been called to Washington, and would have to leave in a few days, and all of the parties connected with the two enterprises then agreed on a continuance to July 11th.

On June 6th the formal application of the Richmond San Rafael Ferry Company will be filed with the supervisors, and then the continuance will take place.

Those present on the trip were: Supervisors W. J. Buchanan, chairman; Zeb Knott, Oscar Olsen, C. H. Hayden, R. J. Trembath, County Clerk J. H. Wells, District Attorney A. B. Tinning, President Chas. F. Van Damme, Secretary H. T. Gill, Director Oliver J. Olsen and Manager Mose Moch of the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Company; Roy O. LOCAL HARBOR DREDGING IS NOW BEGUN

With the contract for the deepening of the inner harbor and harbor channel to a depth of 30 feet let to the United Dredging company through the office of Major J. W. N. Schultz, and to be paid for jointly by the city and the United States government, work was begun on a new era of harbor development for Richmond.

This dredging is being done at a total cost of $218,000 and will occupy four months before its completion. The dredged material is being run into the land to be occupied by the Ford company where it will be allowed to dry and settle as the foundation for that company's big manufacturing plant. The filled land will be settled and in condition for actual work on the new plant by spring of next year. By that time it is estimated everything will be in readiness for the uninterrupted carrying out of the Ford company's plans.

At the same time the deepening of the harbor and channel will open the way for larger shipping. With the tendency of modern manufacturing toward vessels of large draught, a harbor which provides an adequate depth will be used. With all the haste possible Richmond harbor is being put into condition to meet the needs of all world-wide shipping.

Plans for all the deepening work now being done on the harbor have been approved in detail by Major Schultz and have been accepted by the government engineers at Washington.

While the work now possible without delay is being done the city is preparing to vote bonds of $640,000 for the dredging of the harbor to a depth of 32 feet and the widening of the channel from 200 to 400 feet with a depth also of 32 feet. This would meet all competitive conditions for shipping and would put Richmond on an equality with all ports in its outreach for industries requiring heavy shipping.

As soon as this city has voted the bonds which show its bona fide intention of continuing its harbor program the federal government will be asked to survey for the new plans and approval of the government will be sought for the new harbor proposals. It is believed that there will be a strong argument in behalf of the new harbor program if the city can point out it already has the money to put up with the government money for the work.

In all its efforts to fulfill the obligations of its position as occupying a place of strategic importance in commerce and industry the city of Richmond has had the warm cooperation of Congressman Curry who has watched in all its phases the progress of Richmond's measures through Congress and through the hands of federal engineers and the universal respect for his judgment in such matters has won for Richmond repeatedly the approval of legislators and army men to the city's harbor plans.

Practical experience of federal engineers headed by Major Schultz, together with the needs of the Parr Terminal Corporation and the Ford Motor company, combined to furnish the plans under which the present harbor development is taking place. With the aim of the Parr company of developing the shipping facilities amount of traffic could be handled over Richmond wharves the entire plan has been made to conform to very practical needs.

First work began in dredging the inner harbor and the channel along the Ford Property so that this land could be filled and put into condition as soon as possible for the uses of the plant. The amount of fill here, which will be over twelve feet, will require a large part of the mud dredged from the inner harbor.

Plans for the dredging, drawn in the office of Major Schultz, divide the work into six parts. Of these Section "A" is the largest. Including the channel from Wharf No. 1 to a point in the inner harbor opposite the foot of Tenth street. This comprises an area 200 feet wide and approximately 3140 feet long, all of which is dredged to 30 feet below "mean low lower water."

Section "B" is an elbow enlargement where the channel turns north into the inner harbor. It will allow ships of considerable length to make the turn without inconvenience or danger. This section will also be 30 feet deep, and will be 480 feet wide.

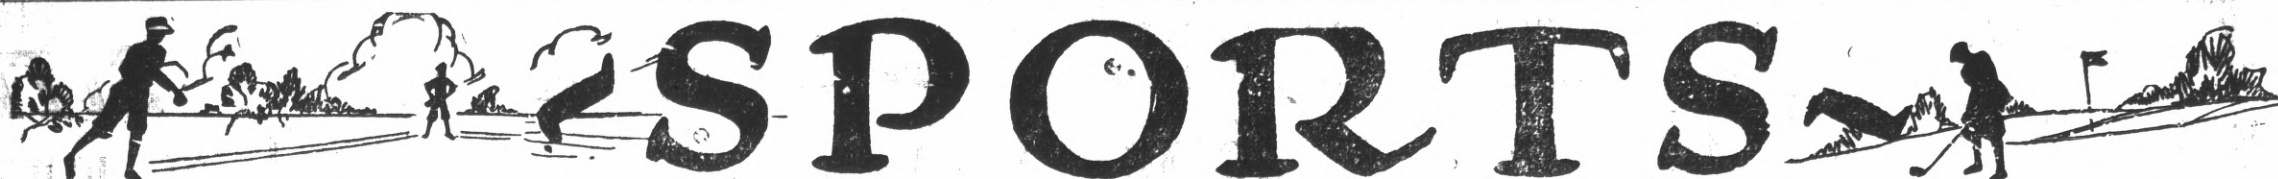

Section "C" in the plans is the part of the inner harbor running toward Cutting boulevard from

BRADBURY'S DOUBLE WINS FOR REFINERY CREW

AUTRY OUTFIT TAKES LEAD IN S. O. LEAGUE

HOW THEY STAND

Refinery	W. L. Pct.
Mechanics	3 1 .750
Barrel House	2 2 .500
All Standards	1 3 .250

When the Standard Oil league season opened three weeks ago Red Bradbury, Refinery catcher, made his debut by hitting a long home run over the right field fence to give Chick Autry's aggregation its initial victory of the season.

And just to show that the decisive swat was no fluke, the sorrel topped receiver broke up another ball game yesterday when he drove out a long double to the left center field fence to win for the Refiners over the Mechanics by a 2 to 1 score.

Incidentally, the victory gave the Refiners the undisputed leadership of the league, with the Mechanics going into a tie with the Barrel House outfit for second place.

The contest was a great pitching duel between Hal Dimmock and Gene Kersten, with little to choose between them. Dimmock, after getting away to a poor start in the first inning when the Mechanics clicked out four hits to score their lone run, settled down and held Pop Arlett's charges to three bingles in the remaining six innings. Hal fanned seven Mechanics and walked only one.

Kersten, on the other hand, allowed but four hits, but two of them came together in the fourth canto to give the Refiners the tying and winning runs. Kersten walked two and struck out three. The Mechanics took an early lead in the first inning when they put over their one run. Billy Lane opened the game with a single to short and went to second on Lamarra's sacrifice. Bartoli followed with a single to left, scoring Lane.

The Refiners could do little with Kersten's slants until the fourth. Red Johnson opened the inning by singling into right field. Zimmerman went out, Kersten to Borton, and Peppin drew a walk. This brought up Bradbury, and the latter sewed up the contest with a long drive to the left center fence, Johnson and Peppin scoring easily.

The score:

KEARNS SAILS AFTER HEAVYWEIGHT

Jack Kearns sailed for England with Mickey Walker and Teddy Hayes. Walker fights Tommy Milligan for the middleweight title shortly and Kearns believes in getting there in time to acclimate the Rumson, N. J. entry.

The real purpose of Kearns' trip to England, aside from his naturally keen interest in Mickey, is to dig up a heavyweight. Kearns doesn't care whether he gets one from England or France or Italy or Germany. All he wants is a big fellow with two legs. Doe has demonstrated that the proper use of the ballyhoo can, with proper backing, set, the country on its ear.

While abroad he will look for some one he can build the ballyhoo around.

It is a good bet that Kearns will be successful. They don't come any smarter than this fellow. He's a little bit of all right, as we say in Piccadilly.

WHO SAID "I, THE POOR INDIAN?"

If Nicholas Quanaawah, Hopi Indian snake priest, is a full-blooded American Indian, perhaps he has settled the U. S. Olympic problem. In winning the New York to Long Beach marathon in the time of 2 hours, 47 minutes, 43 1/5 seconds, the snake priest loomed as a handy red man to have around when the Olympic marathons arrive at Amsterdam, Holland.

Quanaawah, scorning the running shirt which his pale brothers affect, accustomed himself to the hard pavements of civilization and acclimated himself to the change in altitude in six short days, and then ran the greatest marathoners of the East into submission.

Marathon running, which has suffered from the same old faces, will be spurred by the victory of this red man from Arizona. He has all of the color which prompted song writers to write a song around Dorando, the little Indian, probably the only man in history that song pluggers took their theme from the methodical sport which tests a man for twenty-six miles.

Whitely Michelsen is beginning to enjoy a healthy hatred of trains. Pullman and freight.

A few years ago, Whitely was winning a marathon at Baltimore when a freight train pulled across the road and held him up for ten minutes. The brakeman wouldn't let him climb through the intersection of the cars.

In the Long Beach marathon, Whitely ran atoul of the same experience. He lost 100 yards while a train cut across his path. Inasmuch as he only lost by 150 yards to the snake priest, the train was a very discouraging piece of business.

Carquinez Club Awards Trophies

Award of the directors' cup to the winner of the annual tournament at the Carquinez Golf club of Richmond was made at a banquet on last evening at the clubhouse. Ray Schrader, winner of low net score, received the coveted trophy while the runnerup cup went to G. L. Treblich, Alstrom received a prize for the holder of the low gross score.

The banquet was a "stag" affair and the meal was followed by a whist tournament, conducted under the supervision of the house committee, of which Al Hill is chairman.

avoided this. Richmond has grown wisely and systematically. The whole general plan of the city has been laid out so that the richest parts may be drained by railway lines. Industrial sites are located with an eye to the railroad.

"Much credit I believe is due to Fred Parr for the remarkable success that has attended his efforts on the waterfront. It is only a matter of a short time before Richmond will be interlaced with elaborate systems of railway facilities."

J. R. Hayden, assistant traffic manager of the Santa Fe railroad, gave it as his opinion yesterday that Richmond is on the threshold of important industrial development never before equalled in the bay district.

"The selection of Richmond by the Ford company is certain to direct attention of other important industries seeking locations on the Pacific Coast. Actual water front land can here be made available with minimum expense for dredging and filling."

"Richmond is served by two highly competing railroads, a matter of large importance to any industry seeking a high quality of service. Land is comparatively cheap and labor and living conditions are favorable. I believe these factors combined will go far to make Richmond one of the important railroad and water terminals of the Pacific Coast."

Exercises For Memorial Day Are Planned

Automobile loads of choice flowers are being arranged for at the Berkeley Police headquarters under the direction of Mrs. J. Fisher who will care for their transportation to the Sunset Memorial Cemetery and place them on the graves of Veterans of all wars.

While there have been many flowers offered there are still many flowers needed to cover all the graves. All flowers should arrive at the police headquarters before 9 p. m. Sunday, May 29th.

The exercises will be held Monday the 30th of May at 11 a. m. and a large crowd is expected to form in the line of march that will form at the gate. Music will be selected for the occasion by the Veterans' Council of Berkeley and Richmond.

A vocal solo will be rendered by Madame Dorothy Regan Talbot which a military touch will be added by the Firing Squad and the Buglers, Mr. Alfonso Colson and Thomas Nee, who will sound taps.

General David P. Barrows will be the main speaker of the day. Chairman for arrangements of the day are C. H. Jungstrom from Richmond and F. W. Nitsche of Berkeley.

seen through the State Legislature and successfully through the hands of Governor Young, the two measures which relieved question as to the right of the city to lease certain harbor lands and confirming the city's fifty-year lease with the Parr corporation.

The Parr company is receiving the strong cooperation of both the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads in its work for the development of Richmond. The two companies have placed their industrial departments at the service of the city and are working in their respective fields to utilize the harbor lands now being made available for deep sea shipping.

resurvey the harbor for more development," he said. "In order to do this, I would suggest that the Chamber of Commerce adopt a resolution to the effect that such a survey is vital. It is probable that the action will be taken in the early part of 1929."

Praises Richmond

Congressman Curry, calling to mind the progress that the city has made, declared that when he first became representative of the third district, there were but four or five manufacturing plants in the whole county. In 1927 Contra Costa county exceeds any other county west of the Mississippi in industrial output and factories, producing more than San Francisco or Los Angeles.

Proud of District

"I am proud to represent the best people in the best state in the best county in the best city in the world," Congressman Curry stated. "There is a great future ahead of Richmond if problems are handled in the right way. The district has more than doubled in population in 40 years. The middle class enjoy what would be considered luxuries in other countries. There are more autos in the state of California than in England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales combined."

Industry Support Urged

"I shall do my best to aid Richmond to secure more industries and better railway facilities," Congressman Curry went on. "But above all, treat them right when you have secured them. That is the only way that any city can hope for continued well being."

For Bond Issue

While declaring that he did not favor bonds that became a burden on the people, Congressman Curry announced himself emphatically in favor of the issue of harbor bonds in Richmond, inasmuch as they were a vital factor in its future prosperity.

The bonds will serve as an investment that will return a revenue to the city treasury. The federal government is always willing to aid those who want to help themselves. Bonds are a legitimate investment.

"Richmond will ultimately occupy a central place in San Francisco bay that far surpasses any east bay city. This is only logical. San Francisco has fully developed its harbor facilities, and Richmond must take its place as a port."

"The fact that Ford has located a plant here shows the trend of industry. Ford is a hard-headed business man; he rarely makes a mistake."

Richmond Air Port
Affirming that the future development of aviation would largely depend on air ports, Congressman Curry suggested that a landing field be considered soon.

"No satisfactory field exists in San Francisco," he said, "and Richmond is still in the possession of large tracts that would admirably serve the purpose."

"The airplane in the next few years will be used to assemble food for further transportation by train and boat—there will be unity of action by rail, plane and

Reveal Marriage Of Actress And Millionaire

(By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, May 26.—Shrouded in the deepest secrecy for more than a year, the amazing marriage of Francis Worthington Hine, war hero and young millionaire clubman, to the charming actress, Vivienne Osborne, was discovered today.

With fine irony the strange romance of the very rich and very prominent young man to the piquant actress, a belated find, has not become known until almost its end. They are now living apart. For Hine it is the second disillusionment. For her it is the bitter first.

So hidden from the public has this marriage been kept that not even the Social Register, that arbiter of the socially distinguished, was not aware of it.

Now, when only the formal bonds of marriage hold them together, Hine and his talented actress wife, and love has departed, their union becomes public.

But Miss Osborne still hopes for reconciliation. She said this today in her lavish apartment as she nervously admitted her marriage to Hine. She cried:

"O still love him. I hope that we will become reconciled."

She would not say when or where they were married except to state the wedding occurred about a year ago. She would not say why her husband and she were separated except to say that they had occupied separate residences since the death of his mother some three and one-half months ago.

Roosevelt High Concert Enjoyed

Helen Clevanger, contralto soloist, and Gertrude Tavelra, pianist were well received at the noon concert at the Roosevelt Junior high school auditorium yesterday.

The program, which is as follows, was enjoyed: A "Danny Boy" by Homer; "Pale Moon," "La Golondrina" Sedell; "Repita's Mouth," Blake. There were vocal numbers sung by Miss Clevanger, Miss Taxler then played "Waltz in A Flat" by Brahms; "Turkish March" Beethoven, after which "Danny Boy" Weatherbee and "God Touched the Song" by Brown were sung by the soloist.

Schools Problem

While declaring that Richmond's schools were of the best, Congressman Curry gave it as his opinion that too much money was expended for high schools and universities and not enough attention was paid to the needs of elementary schools and their teachers.

"When it is learned that 80 per cent of grammar school pupils never graduate; that but 20 per cent of these enter high school, and one half of these graduates enter the Universities, and that 5 per cent of these graduate, it would seem that more attention should be paid to the 80 per cent than to the 5 per cent."

"We don't need palaces in which to give education, and it is my belief that the man who can make a chair well, deserves as much praise as the attorney."

the foot of Tenth street. This will be re-dredged over an area of 200 feet wide and about 2750 feet long, 80 feet of which will be widened to 400 feet. The whole will be put to a depth of 24 feet for use of smaller vessels.

Section "D" is a widening of the inner harbor opposite the entrance to the Ford channel. This will enable ships backing out from the Ford channel to swing around, stern foremost, so that their bows are pointing out of the harbor as a readier and easier means of exit. This section will be 30 feet deep, 150 feet wide and about 1530 feet in length.

Section "E" is the Ford harbor running eastward from the inner harbor for 1800 feet along the southern frontage of the Ford property. It will be 200 feet wide and, differing from other harbor depths, will be 32 feet deep. With Section "F" which will also be 32 feet in depth, 200 feet wide and 155 feet long along the western line of the Ford property the city in these two sections will make for the Ford plant a deep water harbor on both the southern and western frontage of the property.

To pay for the city's portion of this work City Manager J. A. McVittie has placed in the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco the sum of $152,500, obtained from the sale of the city harbor bonds. The balance of the work will be paid for by the federal government. The contract for the job was signed on May 13 and calls for the dredging of 2,181,000 yards of dirt with an allowable overdepth of 153,700 yards.

BREAK HINTED BETWEEN KELLY AND ACTRESS

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, May 26.—Declaring that "I think it's just the break," Dorothy MacKaye tonight reports that Paul Kelly, motion picture actor, under conviction for the death of her husband, Ray Raymond, had broken with her.

"I know nothing about this so-called 'new attitude' of Paul's," declared Miss MacKaye, who has gone into seclusion at a downtown hotel.

Today Kelly surrendered the natty clothes he wore during his trial to jail officials and was given the usual prison garb of blue denim overalls and jacket.

Kelly, it was said, will not be assigned to work at jail tasks until the matter of his appeal has been settled. He is confined to his cell except for brief exercise periods.

Kelly appeared downcast and was reported to be in a highly nervous state. He refused to discuss or deny his reported break with Miss MacKaye and refused to answer any questions pertaining to his trial or conviction.

The young film actor who faces a one to ten year term for manslaughter, will be sentenced on Tuesday next by Judge Burnell. His attorney, W. I. Gilbert, was preparing an appeal which will be filed tomorrow.

The screen actor's conviction came as a climax to the beating he administered to Ray Raymond, musical comedy actor, when the latter protested against Kelly's attentions to his wife.

Kelly's alleged decision to break with Miss MacKaye came, it was said, because of her indifferent attitude toward him during his trial.

Miss MacKaye admitted that she had not communicated with Kelly since Easter Sunday, the day following Kelly's attack on Raymond, which resulted in the latter's death two days later.

In her testimony as a witness for the state Miss MacKaye revealed Kelly as an ardent, impetuous lover who wrote her long love messages. She denied, however, that their relations were anything but a "beautiful friendship."

The trial which started on May 9 and was concluded Tuesday with Kelly's conviction, was replete with sensational testimony of alleged "gin parties" in Kelly's room. "Jungle," Kelly's Japanese servant, testified that "Polina breakfasts" to Kelly and Miss MacKaye were served on several occasions. Both Kelly and Miss MacKaye denied this, however.

Miss MacKaye admitted that she and Kelly had "quarrelled around" during her husband's theatrical engagement in San Francisco. She denied, however, that she remained in Kelly's room drinking gin when the actor went to Raymond's home and administered the beating that resulted in the death of the song and dance man.

High Tribute Of Praise Is Paid Curry

mond—he has served the state and the nation.

"Congressman Curry holds a particular place in the hearts of the people of Richmond. It is not alone on account of what he has done for the city, but for his wholehearted respect and friendship that he has naturally fallen heir to in his career as a statesman."

"What has Congressman Curry done for Richmond? In 1913 when Richmond was at the beginning of her development, he alone made it possible for the city to obtain $428,000 of federal money; again in 1918, 1921, and 1923 over $300,000 more funds were secured from the same source."

"In 1926—the pinnacle year of Richmond's development—his efforts have culminated in the stroke of good fortune for the city that will make it a city of destiny."

"Congressman Curry has not profited in a pecuniary way from his years of service. Instead he has accumulated a wealth of friends, philosophy and patriotism."

"And when the Grand Old Man of California is gone, let us not forget that by his efforts and his consecration to duty alone, was Richmond able to become the central point in San Francisco Bay."

Congressman Curry—dean of Congress, and the inspiration of the state of California, I greet you."

in every respect.

With the bringing into use of this new wharf, the running time between the two counties will be reduced ten minutes, and the company will be placed in a position of maintaining a twenty minute service.

This means that the capacity of the ferry company will be increased by one sixth, and the betterment of the service, which has always been considered one of the best in the bay section, will be hailed with much delight by the motoring public.

Yesterday afternoon, Charles F. Van Damme, the president of the company accompanied by other officials, made an inspection of the new pier, and was much pleased with the work.

In connection with this improvement, much of it has been done by Richmond firms. John I. Collins is installing the plumbing, the Pacific Electrical Manufacturing company, the electrical work, and Wallace Snelgrove the carpentering work on the buildings that have been erected on the pier.

Playing With Fire

Adults do not purposely lay hold of hot poker, but many play with fire in another form by entrusting their valuables and keepsakes to makeshift hiding places. It is an unwise practice, for disastrous losses through fire or theft may mean the sweeping away of the accumulations of a lifetime. A sum as small as three dollars a year will provide absolute safety in an American Trust Company safe deposit box. They are fire-proof, thief-proof and worry-proof.
